

JANEEN SOLLMAN
STATE REPRESENTATIVE
DISTRICT 30

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

February 6, 2018

Dear Chair Reardon, Vice Chairs Alonso Leon, Whisnant, and members of the committee,

I am submitting this letter in support of HB 4035. This bill is of utter importance towards college affordability and honoring those that have served. While we are ahead of the country on many things, this is one area where we have fallen behind. We are one of three states who currently don't supply tuition assistance to our National Guard members to attend community college or public university.

Veterans put everything on the line to protect our state from natural threats, threats that come domestically or from overseas. Providing this opportunity for our troops is an important step towards the support our veterans need for their growth, well-being and sacrifice for our country. I would highly urge your support on this bill. I look forward to voting in support of this bill and sharing that support on the Senate side.

Onward & Upward,
