

This bill as written is nothing but a horrible political attack on Oregon's citizens rights. It is feel good legislation that strips basic rights from citizens without due process. This should not even be considered. We have much bigger things to fix in Oregon right now.

Robert Miller