

Please do not vote for HB 4145. It was made to protect people against those that they have a restraining order against, but is now too broad reaching and contains some really silly provisions against restraining order contest.

It had its heart in the right place, but had been perverted by some strange provisions and member classes.

I oppose it.

thanks,

-Craig Keenan