

I want to express my profound opposition to the subject Bill, if for no other reason than the definition of family members is ridiculously broad. Can the Democrat controlled House please begin to act as honest brokers in this debate instead of partisan hacks?

Sincerely,
Paul Murray
Hillsboro