

If this bill is even to be considered, it needs a lot more clarification and significantly tightening up. With all of the serious financial and other issues the state of Oregon faces, how can the legislature even justify wasting time on issues such as these?

John O'Donnell

Bend, OR