

Like many of these so called laws to protect people it does very little but does a whole lot to take away peoples 2nd amendment rights. But that is usually the purpose of them any way. They don't care about protecting people, they just want to take there guns away, any way they can little by little. If those laws work, then why do they have to keep making more of them? Vote no on this terrible bill. Dan Radke.