

This bill is so loosely written that it should never be passed, or even brought up for discussion. I understand the concern for people with mental problems or people with suicide on their minds. But this bill is very poorly written.

Thank you for your consideration
Donald E Porter