

heard that someone you knew years ago could file a report against you and it is your duty to prove your innocence! And that false reports are not prosecuted. Anyone who threatens or commits violence is already breaking the law. That's why firearms owners who follow the law are puzzled about creating another overlay when it is already against the law . Wish to stop crime? Concentrate where crime is happening right now with gangs. A crime map will show you where to start.

Paul Ashton
Newberg
Sent from my iPad