

HB4145 is just another in a series of attacks on law abiding gun owners in Oregon and is not needed. The wording in this bill is too vague and anyone who has a grudge against the legal gun owner can cause the gun owner to lose his or her firearms. This bill is onerous and is not needed.