

I have some questions concerning this bill:

1. Will there be penalties for filing false reports?
2. Will law enforcement be exempt?
3. Will elected officials be somehow exempt?
4. What part of this law would have prevented any recent or past "school shooting"?
5. Does the Oregon legislature intend to just do away with due process altogether?

I would thank you for your time, but when it's being used to foster legislation intended to circumvent my rights, I would instead suggest that this august body of officials spend it's time doing something to actually improve this state instead of turning it into another failed socialist experiment.

Sincerely, Mike Jones.
