

Guns are not the problem. The problem is people who use them for the wrong reason. What is the answer? If you take the guns, will the killing stop? NO! Will they just use other weapons. YES. Punishment is the answer. No, not time in jail where they work out in the gym, eat good food, watch porn, have conjugal visits and all the other freebies. Punishment equivalent to the pain they have caused others. Not parole in 15 years or less, not release time to go see mom in the hospital but instead work, everyday and I mean work. Work planned by those who have been hurt and affected by the crime.

Come on, wake up!
