SUMMARY

Provides that, for offense under wildlife laws involving unlawful taking or killing of wildlife for which State Fish and Wildlife Commission may recover damages, court may order that part of fine be paid over to commission. Allows higher maximum fine for offense if damages recoverable for unlawful killing or taking exceed statutory maximum fine for offense. Reduces amount of damages recoverable for unlawful taking or killing by fine amount paid over to commission. Makes failure to pay ordered amount to commission grounds for denying license, tag or permit.
