Declares emergency, effective on passage.

A BILL FOR AN ACT
Relating to Internet service providers; creating new provisions; amending ORS 646.608; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. As used in sections 1 to 5 of this 2018 Act:
(1)(a) “Broadband Internet access service” means:
(A) A mass-market retail service provided by wire or radio that enables a customer to transmit data to or receive data from Internet endpoints;
(B) Any service that the Federal Communications Commission finds is providing a service that is the functional equivalent of the service described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph; or
(C) Any service that is incidental to or that enables the operation of the service described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.

(b) “Broadband Internet access service” does not include dial-up Internet access service.

(2) “Broadband Internet access service provider” means a person that provides broadband Internet access service.

(3) “Customer” means:
(a) A current or former subscriber to broadband Internet access service; or
(b) A person applying for a subscription to broadband Internet access service.

(4) “Customer personal information” means:
(a) Any information about an individual customer, including:
(A) The name of the customer;
(B) The address of the customer;
(C) The billing or other financial information of the customer;

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted.
New sections are in boldfaced type.
(D) The Social Security number of the customer; and
(E) Any demographic data associated with the customer.
(b) Information about an individual customer's use of broadband Internet access service, including:
(A) The customer's Internet browsing history;
(B) The customer's application usage history;
(C) Any device identifier associated with the customer's subscription to broadband Internet access service, such as a media access control address, an international mobile equipment identity or an Internet Protocol address;
(D) Any Internet Protocol address to which the customer sends or from which the customer receives a communication;
(E) The customer's precise location; and
(F) The content of the customer's Internet communications, including information pertaining to the customer's finances, health or children.

SECTION 2. (1) A broadband Internet access service provider may not disclose, sell or permit access to customer personal information, except as permitted under this section.

(2)(a) A broadband Internet access service provider may disclose, sell or permit access to customer personal information if the customer gives the broadband Internet access service provider express consent to disclose, sell or permit access to the customer personal information of the customer.

(b) A customer that gives consent under this subsection may revoke the consent at any time by communicating the revocation to the broadband Internet access service provider. For purposes of this paragraph, a broadband Internet access service provider must provide customers with an easily accessible means of communicating a revocation.

(c) A broadband Internet access service provider may not:
(A) Refuse to provide broadband Internet access service to a customer on the basis that the customer does not give consent under paragraph (a) of this subsection;
(B) Charge a customer a higher price for broadband Internet access service on the basis that the customer does not give consent under paragraph (a) of this subsection; or
(C) Offer a customer a discount on broadband Internet access service on the basis that the customer gives consent under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(3) A broadband Internet access service provider may disclose, sell or permit access to customer personal information without the customer giving the broadband Internet access service provider consent for the following purposes:
(a) To directly provide the customer with information about the broadband Internet access service or other communications related services offered by the broadband Internet access service provider;
(b) To initiate or render broadband Internet access service;
(c) To bill and collect moneys owed for broadband Internet access service;
(d) To protect the rights or property of the broadband Internet access service provider, or the rights or property of customers or other broadband Internet access service providers, in cases involving fraud or abusive or unlawful use of or subscription to broadband Internet access service;
(e) To comply with a court order;
(f) To provide the precise location of the customer:
(A) In an emergency situation, to a public safety answering point, emergency medical services provider, emergency dispatch center, law enforcement officer or agency, fire service professional or agency, hospital or trauma care facility;

(B) In an emergency situation involving the risk of death or serious bodily harm to the customer's legal guardian or a member of the customer's immediate family; or

(C) In response to an emergency situation, to providers of information or providers of database management services for the sole purpose of assisting the delivery of emergency services; and

(g) To disclose, sell or permit access to an aggregate dataset from which information that may be used to identify an individual customer has been removed, provided that all persons that have access to the aggregate dataset agree to not use information in the aggregate dataset for purposes of identifying an individual customer.

SECTION 3. (1) A broadband Internet access service provider must take reasonable measures to protect customer personal information from unauthorized use, disclosure or access.

(2) In taking reasonable measures under this section, a broadband Internet access service provider must take into account each of the following factors:

(a) The nature and scope of the activities of the broadband Internet access service provider;

(b) The sensitivity of the data collected by the broadband Internet access service provider;

(c) Administrative safeguards necessary to protect customer personal information, such as:

(A) Designating one or more employees to coordinate efforts to protect customer personal information;

(B) Identifying reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks associated with the activities of the broadband Internet access service provider;

(C) Assessing whether existing safeguards provide adequate protection from the identified risks;

(D) Training and managing employees in practices and procedures related to protecting customer personal information; and

(E) Adjusting existing safeguards in light of changes to business practices or new circumstances;

(d) Technical safeguards necessary to protect customer personal information, such as:

(A) Assessing risks in the network and software design of the broadband Internet access service;

(B) Assessing risks in the processing, transmission and storage of information by the broadband Internet access service;

(C) Detecting, preventing and responding to intrusions upon, attacks against or system failures of the broadband Internet access service; and

(D) Regularly testing and monitoring the effectiveness of key controls and systems of and procedures used to operate the broadband Internet access service;

(e) Physical safeguards necessary to protect customer personal information, such as:

(A) Assessing risks in the storage and disposal of information by the broadband Internet access service;
(B) Detecting, preventing and responding to intrusions upon, attacks against or system failures of the broadband Internet access service;

(C) Protecting against unauthorized access to or use of customer personal information during or after collecting, transporting, destroying or disposing of customer personal information; and

(D) Disposing of customer personal information after the broadband Internet access service provider no longer needs the customer personal information for business purposes or as required by local, state or federal law;

(f) Any factor or combination of factors described in this subsection for the purpose of determining whether the factor or combination of factors would enable a person to commit identity theft against a customer; and

(g) The technical feasibility of potential measures.

(3) A broadband Internet access service provider may take any lawful measure that allows the broadband Internet access service provider to comply with the requirements of this section.

SECTION 4. A broadband Internet access service provider must provide clear, conspicuous and nondeceptive notice of the requirements and allowances described in sections 2 and 3 of this 2018 Act to a customer before the customer subscribes to the broadband Internet access service.

SECTION 5. A customer whose customer personal information is disclosed or sold or to which access is granted in violation of section 2 of this 2018 Act has a private right of action against the broadband Internet access service provider that disclosed, sold or permitted access to the customer personal information.

SECTION 6. ORS 646.608 is amended to read:

646.608. (1) A person engages in an unlawful practice if in the course of the person’s business, vocation or occupation the person does any of the following:

(a) Passes off real estate, goods or services as the real estate, goods or services of another.
