A physical viewing station will be available outside on the front steps of the Capitol building.*

Please note: While speakers are appearing by invitation, the committee welcomes anyone to submit written testimony for the public record by sending it to jscvr.exhibits@oregonlegislature.gov by 5:00 pm, Tuesday, March 24, 2020.

Please focus your written testimony on the following matters:

1. Identify actions to support low-income and vulnerable Oregonians and small businesses as they comply with public health guidance. These actions could include short-term economic relief, protection from housing instability, and support for those not eligible for state programs (such as sick leave and unemployment insurance).

2. Make timely budget and policy recommendations to the Legislature to accomplish the goal above.
