

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT REAL ID

Oregonians travel by air about 6 million times each year. Half of Oregonian air travelers fly four times per year.

FORMS OF IDENTIFICATION

If you're a frequent traveler, it may make sense to get a passport or passport card rather than a Real ID license.

SHOULD I get a Real ID card?

Here are the benefits to you that come with each form of ID.

U.S. Passport:

International travel (land, sea or air).
Cross U.S. land and sea borders.
Air travel within the U.S.
Enter federal facilities.
All other state and federal purposes.

U.S. Passport Card:

Cross U.S. land and sea borders.
Air travel within the U.S.
Enter federal facilities.
All other state and federal purposes.

Real ID Compliant Oregon Driver License or ID card:

Air travel within the U.S.
Enter federal facilities.
All other state and federal purposes.

Standard Oregon Driver License or ID card:

All other state and federal purposes.

More Information about Oregon Real ID:
www.oregon.gov/RealID

ID requirements for flying change October 1, 2020

- You will need a Real ID Act compliant form of identification to fly after October 1, 2020.
- Current Oregon driver licenses are not Real ID compliant.
- Oregon DMV starts issuing Real ID compliant cards in July 2020.
- Washington State's Enhanced Driver License is REAL ID compliant.

Additional acceptable IDs include, but are not limited to:

- U.S. Passport or passport card.
- Foreign government-issued passport.
- U.S. military ID.
- Permanent Resident card.
- Federally recognized tribal photo ID.

For more information visit
Oregon.gov/RealID

For REAL ID updates text: ORE REALID to 368311

ID requirements for flying change Oct. 1, 2020

You will need a federally acceptable form of identification starting
Oct. 1, 2020, to fly
within the U.S.

Learn about your options in Oregon:
Oregon.gov/RealID

