

The time is past for Oregon and Washington to get the talking done and act on getting us more access across our beautiful river. This is so needed for our transportation between jobs and liveability. And most of all getting the economy going full force. This will bring much needed tax revenue to both of our states.

Come on people-- please five years has been too long!!

Sharon Anderson
3714 SE Stott Ave
Troutdale, OR 97060

December 17, 2019