

Closures of businesses and restaurants will impact our young people significantly, please consider providing guidance without imposing penalties for small businesses that employ them. We do not have a clear and accurate picture of this virus, and it's dangers. Consider the impact to young families.

My colleagues and I are making matching donations to the Oregon Food Bank, and looking to donate medical supplies we may have in surplus to hospitals.

Best,

[Redacted signature]