

Dear Co-Chairs Holvey,

As a business owner, I am writing today to share the impacts the current COVID-19 health crisis is having on my business and my employees.

I am the manager of a community theater venue in Springfield, Oregon. We host children's theater, music concerts, dance performances, film screenings, meetings, and more. Due to COVID-19, we are not able to have any shows and events, and our revenue has gone down to $0. Our revenue could remain at $0 for months. As a small not-for-profit arts organization, we do not have a large savings to fall back on. This has been devastating to the theater and its employees.

These are hard times for all of us. I encourage you to support our business community as we deal with the astonishing economic disruption that has accompanied this health crisis.

Sincerely,

Clare McDonald
