

Dear committee members,

Coextensive with issues concerning cash flow include payment of local property taxes. If the government wants to waive payment of property taxes that's fine, but if they want payment of taxes to continue then the landlords need a source of income. This should also be addressed then as part of the overall package of relief considerations.