

As a landlord if I could receive a stay on mortgage and heloc payments and interest I would pass along the savings to my tenants. Additionally the property taxes could be lifted and the savings could be passed along.

This does not help the landlords that may not have a mortgage or have a very small mortgage and may depend on that income to survive though.

Derik