

Hello

As a landlord I would like to share the following thoughts and concerns:

Disaster relief needs to be for both tenants and landlords.

Landlords have bills that need to be paid also.

Proof of not working

We need some sort of documentation from the employer not the tenant, stating that the tenant is not working at this time.

Tenants may received unemployment checks and spend the money towards shopping on line not towards their rent.

We could have a form signed by both the landlord and the tenant showing that rent will be paid in installments.

I do not want my CREDIT score to be taken down due to not being able to pay my mortgage or bills. Why does all the pressure need to be put on the landlords? Landlords and tenants can work together on this.

Kathleen Hoonhout