

Look, it is all so very simple. Unemployment benefits have always been meant to not be paid. That simple. The system is designed to exasperate the applicant. People who are hired to work at unemployment, and especially managers who run these programs are taught to make sure no one actually gets a benefit.

Karma sucks.

Note: Please use discretion with your personal information in written testimony (i.e., do not add personal information you do not want the public to see). All meeting materials, including your name and any personal information contained in the submitted documents, are posted to the Oregon Legislative Information System (OLIS) and are accessible to all major search engines, including Google, Bing, and Yahoo.