Hi there, I own a small property management company based in the Greater Portland Area. We have already had multiple tenants letting us know they will be unable to pay their rent next month. OF those 2 of the home owners have asked us to waive late fees and give them a month to hopefully get on track. Unfortunately, the other (3 so far) home owners have to pay their mortgages with that rent. The majority of our home owners are paycheck to paycheck just like our tenants.

The need for help with rent and mortgage payments will become a necessity real soon.

I am on the board of 3 Oregon landlord education groups and have 20 years of property management experience, I would be happy to help this committee in any way I can.
