

Please make sure that people with intellectual, cognitive, developmental or other disabilities have a trusted person with them in the hospital, or other medical settings.

My brother, though a senior citizen, has the mental capacity of a typical three-year-old. He also has the fear and emotional needs of child, too. Please don't force people like him to be alone in a scary medical situation. Thank you for your compassion and wisdom.

Barbara E. Berger
5005 SW Mitchell ST, Unit 6
Portland, Oregon 97221