

Hello, I am NOT in support of extending the grace period for evictions to “270 days” after the end of our state of emergency. Renters/Tenants should be in close communication with their Landlords and work to maintain tenancy. Extending this timeframe to 270 days further delays communication and will instigate a higher proportion of evictions in the end.

Thanks,
Mitch