We need police reform, there is no way you are viewing the Portland police in a positive way right now. You should all feel as angered and embarrassed as we do knowing that our police have done more damaged than any other city in America. They clearly feel above the law because they continue to put our peaceful protestors in danger and hurt them. If you do not stop them no one will. We need protectors who symbolize heroes not terrorist and bullies. The people of Portland want better, we need better. Everyone should feel safe here and that starts with reform and new ways of handling mental illness, homelessness, and none other non criminal offenses. Please listen to your emails, voicemails, and all the protestors begging for change and justice.

Thank you.
