

- In the interest of clean air and racial justice, I support a full ban on tear gas.
- Tear gas affects peaceful, law abiding protestors, journalists, innocent bystanders, and sometimes people in nearby homes
- Swift and selective arrests of law breakers should be considered over responses that punish indiscriminately, sometimes with longer lasting effects to physical health