Of course chokeholds should be banned, I'm surprised they are still allowed after the 'smoke em, not choke em" Portland Police debacle of 1985, when Lloyd "Tony" Stevenson was killed by Portland Police.

https://www.wweek.com/news/2016/04/20/its-been-31-years-since-lloyd-tony-stevenson-was-killed-by-portland-police-at-age-31/

The time for the Police to police themselves has been over for decades.

They need clear directions and oversight, not qualified immunity when acting in the community