

What better time than these days to make sure every Oregonian has Healthcare. We appreciate all the hard work the task force and legislators have put in on this effort. Comfort from knowing you and your family will have health care will relieve a lot of unnecessary stress. Nobody needs more stress in these days.

We encourage you to keep the funding going forward 2 give us our health care rights

Bruce Yelle