

I am thrilled that your work is finally commencing. May you have good cooperation in establishing a clear path forward to making health care for all in Oregon a reality. Too bad it wasn't already in place when the pandemic hit. Best of luck. June Hemmingson from Albany