

Hello,

I am writing on behalf of my husband. He lost his job of 20 years due to COVID and it has been nearly 2 months and no progress. He can't reach anyone at the office, it goes to a busy signal every single time. Unfortunately no one can live off a single income these days, it's scary to think what we will do if this problem continues.

Thank you.