

On April 8th me employer terminated me for no reason & just handed me my last check & told me to call the corporate office and ask why I was terminated. I called corporate & I was told they don't have to tell me why I was terminated. They hired a female who got terminated from Columbia sportswear they trained her fired me and she took my position.

I have been claiming unemployment since April 10th 2020. Unemployment phone lines are ALWAYS BUSY. I was able talk with an associate in late May or Early June. I was told to keep claiming weeks and that I needed to speak with an adjudicator & that should happen in July or August. It's September, No Update, No call or date setup for judication,. I have written OREGON UNEMPLOYMENT in Salem 4 times & I am going to write them every day this week. I am 6,400+ dollars behind in rent & have extensions from PGE & owe them over 300 dollars & other bills. The moratorium on eviction ends in September. 18+ weeks and counting & it's impossible to call Oregon Unemployment can't get an update & no reply to my letters.. WHEN IS MY ADJUDICATION GOING TO HAPPEN IT'S SEPTEMBER SUMMER'S OVER. I WAS TOLD IT WAS GOING TO HAPPEN IN JULY OR AUGUST. What's going on ? PLZ fix my case so I can pay rent and bills. My Patience Is GONE. HELP !!
