

It's been two months of claiming benefits without any checks or even a single bit of communication. Will I get approved? Will I be left to claim for months only to find out I've been denied?

I won't be paying rent this month because of all the uncertainties. Keep cash with you and do not spend!! The system is unreliable and unresponsive.