

I spoke with a claim specialist in late May or early June. I was told that adjudication would happen in July or August. I spoke with the claim specialist today & I waited two hours on hold - the claim specialist told me adjudication is taking about 12 to 16 weeks. So I have another two months to wait - WOW !!.

The moratorium on evictions is up at the end of September. I am currently $6,400 behind on rent and over $300 behind on my power bill along with other bills. So what am I going to tell my landlord ? What possible explanation can I give my landlord - will my landlord be patient for another 2 months ? What will I tell the judge in landlord tenant court ?

Will the Multnomah County landlord tenant judge be understanding ? I'll tell the judge Oregon Unemployment hasn't settled my claim they've had my claim for 7 months and I'm waiting for adjudication and they told me it might be another month. I'm sorry judge all I can tell you is that because it's impossible to call them.
