

Hi, I would like to remain anonymous if possible.. but if not just use my first name if accepted.

Anyways, my testimony is regarding my unemployment benefits, I haven't received anything since I applied back in April, on the 25th to be exact. Since then things have only gotten worse financially, at first I just thought it would be to catch up and I wouldn't use it again once I found a job. But that wasn't the case. I'm so backed up on bills right now.. and so direly praying for my benefits to come in. Because as it stands right now I'm in no fighting shape, no more emergency funds, no more family to help. Nothing so far but I haven't given up.
