

No More Loopholes for Cops

The police forces of Oregon, especially of the Portland metro area, have shown that they can not be trusted with tear gas or rubber bullets. They ignore instructions and know to never admit to wrongdoing, nor to the wrongdoing of their colleagues, despite already having every conceivable protection and an out for every possible consequence. Please nullify qualified immunity. To do so, would literally save lives.

Janna Tessman