

As a person of faith, I stand with those who propose police reform.

This short note is to state my support for a legislative session in September to consider and pass police violence restraint bills.

Thank you for your consideration.

Carol Newman

Astoria, OR 97103