LPRO: LEGISLATIVE POLICY AND RESEARCH OFFICE

COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL FITNESS AND DISABILITY

The Governor has appointed the following individual to the Commission on Judicial Fitness and Disability subject to Senate confirmation.¹

Appointees

Karyn Goodfriend of Portland, Reappointment

Term

December 19, 2020 – December 18, 2024

Appointment/Confirmation Authority

ORS 1.410 \(2019\)

Statement of Economic Interest²

Required.

Statutory Requirements³

The commission consists of:⁴

- three judges appointed by the Supreme Court (CAMPBELL, POWERS, VOGT);
- three persons appointed by the Board of Governors of the Oregon State Bar from among persons admitted to practice law in this state (KEBLAR, PARKER, WALLACE); and
- three persons appointed by the Governor and subject to confirmation by the Senate who are not otherwise qualified for appointment (GOODFRIEND, HERRERA, KENNEY).

Members serve four-year terms and must maintain their qualifications for appointment. The commission must select one of its members as chairperson, and another as vice chairperson, for such terms and functions as the commission determines.⁵ A majority of the commission constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. Every recommendation to the Supreme ⁵ ORS 1.480 \(2019\).

Court on matters related to the removal of a judge must be concurred in by a majority of the commission members.

Duties and Authority

The commission reviews complaints about Oregon state judges and justices of the peace, investigates when alleged conduct might violate the state's Code of Judicial Conduct or Section 8, Article VII (amended) of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and investigates complaints referred by the Chief Justice that a judge has a disability which significantly interferes with the judge's job performance.⁶

The commission must:⁷

- receive and investigate complaints concerning the conduct of a judge and make recommendations to the Supreme Court for censure, suspension, or removal from office; and
- receive from the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and investigate complaints concerning a disability that significantly interferes with the capacity of a judge to perform judicial duties.

The commission may:⁸

- appoint such subordinates and employees as the commission considers necessary to carry out the duties and powers vested in the commission;
- request the assistance of and compensate physicians, expert witnesses, and special counsel;
- by its chairperson or vice chairperson, take and preserve testimony and administer oaths to witnesses on any matter within its jurisdiction;
- upon completion of an investigation of judicial conduct, hold a hearing, request the Supreme Court to appoint qualified persons to hold a hearing, allow the judge to execute a consent to censure, suspension, or removal, or refer the complaint to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for appropriate proceedings;
- upon completion of an investigation of judicial disability, hold a hearing, request the Supreme Court to appoint qualified persons to hold a hearing, direct a subject judge to submit to physical examination or mental evaluation, enter into a disposition of the matter with a subject judge, or recommend to the Supreme Court that the judge be suspended; and
- apply to a circuit court to compel a person to appear, produce evidence, or answer any question pertinent to the subject under inquiry.
