

I am not in favor of forgiving any rent to a renter who has not made any attempt to pay his rent because he learned early on that I could not evict for none payment. I will not get a dime out of this person and when this is all over. As of now I am out $9000. The government should not have the leagal right to take money away from me and give it to someone else.