

The Nation NEEDS it.; a workable insurance system for health care. Medicare for All is just an old restatement of corporate provided avenues to health insurance designed to enrich corporate providers of expensive, unfair healthcare funding.

The very words, Medicare for All, make me angry and disillusioned.

I respectfully wish you wisdom and success for this important battle!

--

Vicki