

Christopher Ward

Chris Ward is President of Ward Health Inc., a health care consultancy established in 2000 and based in Dundas ON (Canada) and Washington, DC (United States). Ward Health's clients include government ministries and agencies, health industries, and health-related non-profit organizations in Canada and the United States.

Chris Ward has had a lengthy involvement in health policy both in the private and public sectors. From 1985 to 1990 he served as a Member of Provincial Parliament in the province of Ontario, Canada and was a member of Premier David Peterson's cabinet.

In 1985 he was Parliamentary Assistant to Ontario's Minister of Health and was responsible for carrying the legislation that established Canada's largest publicly funded prescription drug benefit plan. In 1987 he was appointed Minister of Education and in 1990 he was Government House Leader.

Chris has developed, implemented or participated in pharmaceutical and health related projects in over 30 countries, 49 U.S States and 10 Canadian provinces

Ward Health's client activity has included extensive work on health professional regulation, market access and reimbursement, health system financing and sustainability and the development of stakeholder engagement platforms for health policy decision-making.