

I urge you to reschedule the February 11th hearing on HB2001; or schedule an additional opportunity for public comment.

Due to weather conditions across the state, it may not be possible for many concerned members of the public to appear to testify.

A responsible legislature would surely want to provide ample opportunity to hear public input on such an extreme measure with sweeping, statewide consequences.

Respectfully,

Pamela Miller

Eugene, Or.