

Hello,

I am writing to express my opposition to HB2001, doing away with single family zoning. This seems like a giveaway to developers which will both damage the character of existing single family neighborhoods but will not increase affordability. This bill is a poor idea and other avenues need to be explored to address the housing and affordability crisis.

Thank you,

Brett Allen
Portland, OR