

I am very against this bill about carbon taxes. We see what is happening in France when taxes are simply added or raised by leaders who are mostly trying to make a name for themselves. I believe that this tax is totally unnecessary and that it will only weaken our economy rather than help it. The congress needs to strengthen the state through economic means-that means lowering the already high taxes and spend our money wisely. This is a bad bill. Please vote no.