

As a veteran I have found cannabis to be an invaluable medicine. I am so fortunate to own my own home and be able to consume my medicine. It seems outrageous and discriminatory that we do not allow public cafes for consumption, so those who rent or live in public housing can utilize cannabis.

Social consumption would bring our society together. We need this now.

--

Elizabeth LaShomb Christley
The New Amsterdam
503-816-2322