

I oppose taking away parental choice based on contentious or religious beliefs. There are less than 3% of children in Oregon that are completely unvaccinated. The ones that aren't up to date often have had past reactions. Don't make parents choose between school and their deeply held beliefs. Keep freedom free.
Ashley Russell