

I oppose the rezoning plan because it will only benefit developers and make it unaffordable for low income earners to rent in close-in neighborhoods. It will do nothing for the houseless people in Portland. Density does not lead to affordability.

Janet Anderson
Portland, OR 97215