

Ellen Mooney <right2farm@yahoo.com>

I oppose HB 2851, modifying natural water systems to measure water would negatively impact the wetland qualities of each system. Irrigators in local communities have been managing water with the tools available for years and a state-wide mandate to install costly and burdensome measurement devices will NOT solve any problem.

Thank you.
Harriet Mooney
Blachly, OR