

I do not support any mandatory medical procedures. I do not support mandatory vaccinations for any child or adult. No one person is the same, individuals deserve the right to choose. Parents deserve the right to weight out and choose what is best for their children.

Thank you,

Martha Richardson

An educated parent