

I oppose this bill. Vaccines pose very real and researched neurological disorders. Even to those deemed without risks. As a parent, I choose not to vaccinate until vaccines become safer. Taking away a parents right to make medical decisions for their children is making them children of the state, saying that government has the right to inoculate your child with whatever they want- without liability. I will not be okay with my freedoms being taken away.